and live music that is performed during the festival. In this festival, restaurants and food stalls offer traditional Kashan food to visitors. In addition, during the festival, various cultural and artistic programs such as street shows, educational workshops, etc. will be held

And finally, the best time to travel to see Gulab Giri is the middle of May. Because at this time red flowers bloom and the weather is very good and moderate.

In this program, tourists can visit the vast and green rose fields around Kashan and enjoy the beauty and pleasant scent of the flowers.

Another program that is held is holding exhibitions related to handicrafts and souvenirs.

Among other activities that are performed in this festival, we can mention the performance of traditional

The flowers are placed in a container, and another container is placed next to it to collect the rosewater

Over time, the water vapor and flower essence in the side container cools and distills and turns into rose water.

The Kashan rose water festival usually lasts for several days, and in the meantime, other activities are performed in addition to rose water

One of these activities is visiting the flower fields of Mohammadi flowers

The most important part of the traditional celebration is the distillation of rose water. Using old and traditional tools such as the copper pot, this process is an attractive and captivating show that allows tourists to observe this process closely.

When this festival starts:

The flower is picked early in the morning before sunrise. This time is the best time to pick flowers, because their aroma and flavor are at their highest at this time. The picked flowers are quickly transported to the rose-watering workshop to prevent oxidation and reduction of their quality.

Kashan Gulabgiri Festival is one of the traditional and very spectacular festivals of Iran, which is held every year in the spring season, usually in May, in the city of Kashan. This festival is not only an important touristic and cultural event, but also has its roots in the rich history and traditions of this region and introduces one of the most important agricultural products of Kashan, namely rose water. Kashan was famous for Muhammad flowers in ancient times. The cultivation of dahlias in this region has a long history, and the traditional methods of picking dahlias have been passed down from generation to generation. Gulabgiri Festival has been designed and implemented in recent years as an official event to introduce this valuable

Tradition and attract tourists
